A S T L E Y's Riding-School, Weltminter-Bridge.

T U E S D A Y, the 28th of J U L Y, 1772.

Mr. A S T L E Y had the Honour, last Night, to exhibit to upwards of Two Thousand of the Nobility, Gentry and Others, at whose earnest Request (with many more that could not possibly be admitted for Want of Room) he was prevailed upon to continue his Performance a few Evenings longer, as he found it impossible to satisfy the generous Public in so short a Time.

Mr. and Mrs. A S T L E Y,

Who had the Honour of exhibiting before their M A J E S T I E S of England and France, &c. &c. &c.

With Master A t l e y, only five Years old, a young Lady nine Years old, &c. &c. &c.

Will exhibit all their amazing F E A T S, never yet attempted by any One in the World. Also the surprizing

'Little Animal, the Military Horse, whose Abilities far surpass Human Conception.

They ride in the above, and so other different Attitudes, with Elegance and Ease, and give general Satisfaction to every beholder

The Whole to conclude with the French Piece, &c. &c.
